

EXPERIAN QAS END-USER LICENCE AGREEMENT V1.2

BACKGROUND

- A. Experian Limited, has developed contact data management (CDM) solutions to improve data quality including, but not limited to, address capture (QAS Pro) and database cleansing (QAS Batch) software products (defined later as "Licensed Programs") and services which are used and sold together with embedded reference data provided by third party data providers, including the Postal Address File (PAF) data provided by the Royal Mail (defined collectively later in this EULA as the "Data Sets").
- B. This agreement or "EULA" (defined later as the "EULA") relates to the End-User's licence or right to use the Experian QAS software products and services and Data Sets (defined later as "Licensed Materials and Services") which it has received or purchased from an authorised Experian QAS reseller (defined later as "Authorised Reseller") for its internal business use, either as a standalone product or as an integrated element of a wider application or system, subject to any additional restrictions stipulated as part of Permitted Use (defined below).
- C. The End-User should refer to its own confidential agreement with the Authorised Reseller, but, it is important for the End-User to note that (unless otherwise agreed between the Authorised Reseller and Experian QAS):
- the End-User's licence, or right, to use the Licensed Materials and Services will expire unless renewed by the Authorised Reseller on an annual basis (or after the term agreed between the Authorised Reseller and Experian QAS (defined later as "Term").
 - the Authorised Reseller should inform the End-User of its licence period, initial and annual renewal fees payable, permitted users, permitted transactions, permitted location, application, equipment and/or operating environment or additional restrictions which applies to its Licensed Materials and/or Services (defined later as "Permitted Use").
 - there are restrictions relating to the Data Set known as Names Data which can only be used for marketing purposes as defined in the Data Set terms.
 - should the End-User wish to vary the Permitted Use, it will need to inform its Authorised Reseller in advance and any such variation will be recorded in a supplementary agreement, with additional charges, between Experian QAS and the Authorised Reseller.
 - any increase in the number of permitted users, or Data Sets purchased in addition to the Authorised Reseller's original purchase(s) for the End-User will not be renewable separately.
 - New Versions will be made available to the Authorised Reseller by agreement and unless otherwise agreed will be subject to an additional charge.
 - Experian QAS shall be entitled to notify the Authorised Reseller in writing at least 120 days before the renewal date of any increase to the End-User's renewal fee which shall be in accordance with any increase in royalties by a Data Set or Third Party Software provider, or an amount which does not exceed the percentage increase in
 - the Retail Prices Index published by the Central Statistical Office (in the case of all other fees);over the period of 12 months ending on 31st March prior to the renewal date.
 - the renewal fee payable by the Authorised Reseller shall be contingent upon the renewal of all Licensed Materials purchased in the previous twelve calendar month period from the Effective Date (or any anniversary of the Effective Date) exclusive of any development periods.
 - the End-User should inform the Authorised Reseller if it has a direct contractual relationship with a third party licensor of Experian QAS for a Data Set and royalties are therefore not payable to Experian QAS for the End-User use of that Data Set.
 - the End-User should inform the Authorised Reseller if it wishes to pay the Renewal Fee directly to allow Experian QAS to negotiate with the End-User and the Authorised Reseller in good faith to seek to conclude a novation to effect the transfer of Experian QAS' agreement with the Authorised Reseller to the End-User (on the Experian QAS Standard Terms and Conditions unless otherwise agreed). Experian QAS reserves the right to charge the End-User reasonable additional Renewal Fees or other fees related to the transfer.

 - by giving the Authorised Reseller not less than 90 days' prior written notice of termination to expire on the last day of the agreement between Experian and the Authorised Reseller in relation to this EULA (or any subsequent anniversary of that date).
- D. If the Authorised Reseller's agreement with Experian QAS terminates or expires for any reason then the Authorised Reseller shall either continue to perform its obligations under this EULA for the remainder of the Term or Experian QAS will perform the Authorised Reseller's obligations for the remainder of the Term and the Authorised Reseller shall provide all reasonable assistance to Experian QAS in relation to any handover to Experian QAS who will negotiate with the End-User in good faith to agree any required amendments to the EULA (including any new terms or fees applicable).
